1971 JACKET BUZZ

What mysticism in our minds leads us into the romance of astrology and the occult? The future is advancing upon us at breakneck speed, and people are grabbing at science and reason to make sense out of life. Futures are foretold for the destinies of men, and for the analysis of the future, the past, and the present are our concern. But during this racing journey into the future, we can hold the past to us through memories that are dear ...

FEATURES (ORGANIZATIONAL)

"Do Whatever Will Make Kin Happy . . . Please Mate"

MARGIE OWENS, Homecoming Queen for 1970, nominated by Scotty Padgett.

"Sagittarians . . . Carry Themselves Well"

Thelma Shackleford (above), 1969 Homecoming Queen, takes the traditional outgoing ride in the Homecoming parade. Linda Jackson (top right) and Rhonda Holley (Center), candidates for 1970 Homecoming Queen, were nominated by Ira Jackson and Mike Chestnut, respectively.

The fifth grade portrays their western theme with hats and guns.

Coach Sheffield peers through the "jail bars" as he and Coach Pelham "adorn" the winning senior float. Warden Mike Chesnut displays his authority over the coaches for the first time, and probably the last.

Keith Adkinson, Connie Haskins, and Patricia Anderson represent the eighth grade on the winning float of their division.

"Bonnie and Clyde" hit the streets of Vernon, making their appearance for the ninth grade.

The class of 1950, as well as the class of 1960, was honored at Homecoming this year. The former, who got together with a reunion dinner at the Chipley Motel Restaurant on Homecoming weekend, are as follows: (First row) Jerrine Helms Burch, Wilma Wells Stubbs, Hannah Leavins Davis, Jimmy Miner Williams, Lottie M. Dykes, Myrtle Harrell David, Johnnie Dietz Swearinger. (second row) Elma Taylor Dunlap, Marjorie Hasty Peel, Patsy Ferol Coatney, Vera Pate Clubbs, Lula Frazier Hagans, Orie Dorch Simmons, Lavenia Miller Bush, Ruth Johns Givens, Malcom Burke. (Third row) Robert Burke, Blanche Nelson Blosser, Delilia Galloway Callahan, Wilburn Tiller, Margaret Strickland Hicks, Wayne May, Kitty Hightower Crosby, Dick Knight, Clyde Wells.

Clyde Wells (top right) president of the senior class of 1950, converses with a bystander as Mr. Reed, Student Council advisor, lines up the "late Model" in the parade.

"You Can Have An Ideal Day at Social and Recreational Pursuits"

The first grade decks the Vocational-Technical float entry.

"Happiness Is Yours

Paulette Kolmetz, first runner-up for Miss Vernon, sits with Jacqueline Dorch, Little Miss Vernon, atop the vehicle awaiting the Homecoming parade commencement. Paulette substituted in Miss Vernon's duties this year during the illness of Josephine Gilmore, who won the Miss Vernon title.

Little Miss Vernon candidates (below) wait patiently for the announcement of the winner of this "little" pageant. Lynn Dorch's beauty and poise won her the honor and crown of Little Miss Vernon.

Mr. Don Ellis (top right) is given credit of the pageant under experienced direction.

To Create
Don't Panic, You Can Handle It"

Josephine Gilmore (above) demonstrates her singing ability with "Five Hundred Miles," that helped her to win Miss Vernon.

Among the repertoire of musical talents, Frances Miller (above) gives the audience a portion of her ability on the piano.

All of these outstanding students were chosen on a scholastic basis. Students in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades must have earned a B-average since the ninth grade. Eighth and ninth grade students must have maintained a B-average since the seventh grade. Students in the sixth and seventh grades must have an A-average for the first semester this term.

Students with A-averages are (left to right) Bonnie Lewin, Nicey Taylor, Sheila Owens, Wanda Pompey, David Cook, Corine Peterson, and Sharon Jenkins.

"Virgoans Are Intelligent, Perfectionists, and Have Minds Which Make Fine Students"

Eighth and ninth grade outstanding students (above) are (first row) John Jackson, Horace Harvey, Buddy Johns, Keith Howell, Jerry Varnum. (second row) Jeff Porter, Marlene Park, Barbara Kolmetz, Cindy Bush, Karen Corte, Frankie Phillips. (third row) Mary Street, Charlotte Chesnut, Denise Clark, Sherry Austin, Sammy Mitchell, Charlotte Hicks, and Brenda Johns.

(third row) Wayne Kolmetz, Bobby Whitaker, Henry Porter, Lynn Smith, Glenn Weber, Charles Bush, Ronnie Reddick, and Charles Maldon.

. . . Embraces Causes to Help Mankind"

Escort Dewey Mitchell crowns Ruth Jernigan, who succeeded in captivating the crown in the senior high division.

Diane Banks and David Cook revel in the glory of winning the crown for the sixth grade.

Debbie Everitt (top left) progresses the Halloween program as emcee.

Roy Garner and Sue Hicks add a little glamour to the "spooks' night" program with a waltz.

The fifth grade perform the ritual of calling out and picketing for the witches and hobgoblins.

"Prosperous, Outgoing, Leader of Benevolent Causes"

Melissa Brock and Tim Carter, second grade, win the elementary division crown.

Linda Keller and Cindy Bush (below) assist the remaining elementary Halloween kings and queens as they file off the stage.
